REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

Tempest in Precinct No. 18--Harmonious Elsewhere.

In precinct No. 1, Pojoaque, the following were elected delegates: Camilo Martinez, Epifanio Trujillo, Florencio Roybal and Nicolas Quintana.

In precinct No. 3 the following delegates were chosen: Ignacio Sena, Julian Provencio, Jose D. Sena, Telesforo Rivera, Jose Gonzales y Borrego, Epifanio Gallegos, Julio Garcia and Tomas Quintana.

In precinct No. 4, these delegates were elected: Antonio Ortiz y Salazar, Samuel G. Cartwright, J. R. Hudson, Charles W. Dudrow, Charles Parsons, Francisco Anaya, H. L. Ortiz and Antonio Alarid.

In precinct No. 5, Agua Fria, sends the following: Felix Romero y Dominguez, Alejandro Hernandez, Antonio Lopez.

In precinct No. 17, the result of the election was as follows: C. M. Conklin, C. A. Spiess, W. J. McPherson, Marcelino Ortiz and Marcos Castillo.

The Republican caucus held in precinct No. 18, last night, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county convention, was a lively affair from start to finish. From the time the crowd began to gather it was evident that fun was on foot, and the fun began so soon as the meeting was called to order. As near as could be calculated there were 78 Republicans belonging in the precinct present out of a voting strength of 124; those present were divided into two factions.

The minority undertook to run the meeting, the temporary chairman, Octaviano Rodriguez, recognizing them in motions and the like. After spending some time in loud talk, a motion was made to place a permanent chairman in the chair, and it was attempted to carry the motion through without putting it to a vote.

Hon. M. R. Otero being proposed for the position. Then the racket began which, however, was of short duration, as Sheriff Kinsell and City Marshal Gallegos were both present. Order was restored, and an attempt to adjourn the meeting until 7 o'clock a. m. today was made by the minority. This failed and the minority withdrew to another place of meeting and held a separate caucus. So soon as the hall was cleared Mr. G. A. Solignac called the caucus to order and Mr. J. D. Hughes was placed in the chair by an unanimous vote.

In a few moments the work of the caucus was completed by selecting G. A. Solignac, Max Frost, R. J. Palen, Henry Pacheco and Lino Romero as the delegates from the precinct to the county convention.

The caucus then adjourned. The faction which withdrew went to the house of Apolonio Martinez, and selected Mr. M. R. Otero as chairman, and elected the following named as delegates: R. J. Palen, Max Frost, E. L. Bartlett, M. R. Otero and John Forsha.

It is good for coffee men, as it is for spiritual brethren to dwell together in unity. Here are two coffee men, M. P. Gleason, of San Francisco, and G. H. They are at the Palace, and a boarder says as these two coffee twins march into the dining room arm in arm with faces as cheery and happy as Sunday school pupils on a May anniversary picnic, they are the observed of all observers, and set a truly beautiful example which many competing drummers should profit by.

Views of a Leading Republican.

To the Editor of the NEW MEXICAN: I read with pleasure your admirable article on the importance of electing a Republican delegate. Whether we succeed in this or not depends entirely on the candidate. All that is required is the exercise of ordinary common sense in the selection, and the election is sure. The kind of man needed is clearly pointed out by past experience and present conditions.

Two years ago our candidate was defeated by nearly 3,000 majority, though he received every Mexican Republican vote; the loss being in the American towns along the railroad and in the mining districts. To succeed this year we must have a candidate who can hold the Mexican vote and at the same time bring back the American voters in the towns and the mining camps who were lost in 1896. The duty of the party is simply to consider who can best meet these requirements, and then nominate him. When that is correctly done, the victory is won.

REPUBLICANS.
